period of time (amount of exercise time).

TO PASS 80% or higher

Test your knowledge on connecting the data dots

| TOTAL POINTS 3                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |                      |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------|
| Describe the key differences between small data and big data. Select all that apply.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | 1/1 point            |
| Small data focuses on short, well-defined time periods. Big data focuses on change over a long period of tin                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             | ie.                  |
| <ul> <li>Correct         Small data involves a small number of specific metrics over a shorter period of time. It's effective for and day-to-day decisions. Big data involves larger and less specific datasets and focuses on change over a lo period of time. It's effective for analyzing more substantial decisions.     </li> <li>Small data involves datasets concerned with a small number of specific metrics. Big data involves datasets t larger and less specific.</li> </ul> | ng                   |
| iarger and iess specific.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                      |
| Correct Small data involves a small number of specific metrics over a shorter period of time. It's effective for and day-to-day decisions. Big data involves larger and less specific datasets and focuses on change over a lo period of time. It's effective for analyzing more substantial decisions.                                                                                                                                                                                  |                      |
| Small data is effective for analyzing day-to-day decisions. Big data is effective for analyzing more substantial decisions.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              | I                    |
| Correct Small data involves a small number of specific metrics over a shorter period of time. It's effective for and day-to-day decisions. Big data involves larger and less specific datasets and focuses on change over a lo period of time. It's effective for analyzing more substantial decisions.                                                                                                                                                                                  |                      |
| Small data is typically stored in a database. Big data is typically stored in a spreadsheet.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |                      |
| 2. Which of the following is an example of small data?                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | 1/1 point            |
| The trade deficit between two countries over a hundred years                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |                      |
| The total absences of all high school students  The number of steps someone walks in a day                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |                      |
| The bed occupancy rate for a hospital for the past decade                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                      |
| ✓ Correct  The number of steps someone walks in a day is an example of small data.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |                      |
| <ul> <li>3. The amount of exercise time it takes for a single person to burn a minimum of 400 calories is a problem that rec data.</li> <li>True</li> <li>False</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | quires big 1/1 point |
| ✓ Correct                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                      |